

City News In Brief

(From Wednesday's Daily)

From Phoenix

George B. Nelson has arrived in Prescott from his home in Phoenix. He will work at the St. Luke's home here.

Jerome Visitor

Perry Ling, well known attorney from Jerome, was a visitor to Prescott yesterday, coming over on official business.

Mining Man Here

Bert Campbell, of the Jerome Superior mine, yesterday arrived in Prescott to pass a day or two in this city on business.

J. P. Here

Clyde B. Jones, justice of the peace at Jerome, is in Prescott for a day or two on business. He is staying at the Head hotel.

From Mayer

Mrs. T. E. Thompson, residents of Mayer, are in Prescott, passing a few days in this city on a short business and visiting trip.

Seligman Visitor

Miss Grace Miller, resident of Seligman, yesterday arrived in Prescott, planning to pass several days here on a business visit.

Mayer Visitors

Fred Jensen and Frank Upton, both of Mayer, came to Prescott yesterday for a short visit. They are staying at the Prescott hotel.

Returns from Detroit

Dr. J. Harvey Blain has returned to Prescott from Detroit, Mich., where he passed the last month visiting with friends and relatives.

Mayer Visitors

Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Van Horn, well known residents of Mayer, are in the city for a short stay. Dr. Van Horn is here in a professional capacity.

Rancher Here

James McNary, rancher and mining man from Wagoner, yesterday was in Prescott, transacting business and greeting his friends in this city.

From Holbrook

Mrs. Frank Beal, resident of Holbrook, has arrived in Prescott, planning to spend several days in this city. She is staying at the Prescott hotel.

Kirkland Visitors

George Morrison, rancher of Kirkland, and L. P. Helmer, mining man of that city, arrived in Prescott, planning to remain here on a short business stay.

Kingman Visitors

Walter M. Lynch yesterday arrived in the city with Mrs. Lynch, from their home in Kingman. They plan to remain here for several days on a short visit.

Returns from Jerome

Al Keller, local mining man, has returned from Jerome, where he has been for the past several days on business. He is staying at the Prescott hotel.

Here on Business

Henry Miller, rancher and cattleman from the Kirkland country, was a visitor to this city yesterday, coming in for the purpose of transacting business.

From Cedar Glade

H. P. Schwanbeck, proprietor of the general store at Cedar Glade, yesterday was in the city to report the robbery of his store, occurring Monday night.

To Flagstaff

Gary Wyne yesterday went to Flagstaff, where he will remain for a day or two on a short business trip. He plans to return to Prescott by Friday.

From Oklahoma

Homer Squires, champion rider of Oklahoma, has arrived in Prescott, and has entered the broncho riding and the bull-dogging contests for the Frontier days.

Undergoes Operation

Mrs. Van Tittle, of Crown King, arrived in Prescott, and will remain here some time. She was taken to the Mercy hospital, where she underwent an operation. She is reported to be resting easily.

On Motor Tour

Mrs. H. R. Locken and son, and Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Doll, all of Phoenix, were in Prescott yesterday. The party is touring the north end of the state by motor.

Mayer Visitor

George R. Yorke, of Mayer, yesterday was a visitor to the city, coming in to transact business. He will return today to Mayer, where he is engaged in cattle raising.

Returning from Outing

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Stauffer and Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Jett returned Monday from the Grand Canyon and the lake country of Coconino county, where they spent an enjoyable outing.

Dewey Visitor

John Halbleib, veteran mining man of this county, yesterday came in to Prescott from his home in Dewey. He filed affidavits of assessment work for 1920 performed on two mining claims.

Enter Events

Cheyenne Kiser, present holder of the world's championship broncho-busting title, has signed up with the Frontier days association, to enter all the contests during the big four-day rodeo here July 2, 3, 4, and 5.

Mining Man Visits

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Metheny, of Crown King, where Mr. Metheny has extensive mining interests, arrived in Prescott yesterday, and will remain here for several days, probably taking in the Frontier days contests.

Arrives from Sacaton

Clay McGonagill yesterday arrived in Prescott from his home in Sacaton, in the southern part of the state. He will participate in the contests at the Frontier days. McGonagill was at one time champion roper of the world.

On Motor Tour

The Misses Gladys Skilling, of Riverside, Calif., and Rita Bergstrom, of Alhambra, Calif., have returned to the coast, after a short stay in Prescott. The two young women are making a motor tour of the southwest.

For Frontier Days

H. B. Wales, supervisor of the Prescott National forest, last night arrived in Prescott from Crown King, where for the past several days he has been engaged in checking up on the recent forest fire in the Crown King district.

Dewey Merchant

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Stanton are in Prescott, planning to remain in the city for a day or two while Mr. Stanton, proprietor of a store at Dewey, transacts business.

Expected Today

R. E. Donovan, clerk of the Yavapai county board of supervisors, is expected to return to Prescott today from Los Angeles, where he has been passing a vacation of three weeks.

For Frontier Days

Mrs. C. A. Oldham, and the Misses Lorena and Edith Valencia, all of Bakersfield, Calif., yesterday arrived in Prescott, planning to remain here during the Frontier day contests.

Mining Men Here

K. P. Corson, mining man of Seattle, who has been living in this county for some time past, yesterday came to Prescott from Pine Flat, where he plans to take over a mining property. He was accompanied by C. Williams.

Venezia Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Williams yesterday arrived from their home in Venezia, where Mr. Williams operates the War Eagle mine in the Turkey Creek district. They plan to pass a day or two visiting and transacting business in Prescott.

Engineer Here

Frank Gillean, junior partner in the firm of Olmsted & Gillean, Los Angeles engineers engaged as consulting engineers on the Yavapai county highway construction program, yesterday arrived in Prescott to confer with the county highway commission.

Leave for Florence

Sheriff Warren G. Davis, accompanied by Undersheriff Charley Bowers, of Maricopa county, brother of Undersheriff Ed Bowers, of Yavapai, yesterday left the city for the state penitentiary, taking in custody Nican Martin, re-sentenced to hang for the murder of Arthur De Stender.

Here for Inquest

Mr. and Mrs. Shearer, residents of Crown King, yesterday arrived in Prescott, to be present at the continuation of the inquest being held by the coroner's just being held up on the body found near Blind Indian creek last Friday. Mrs. Shearer is the sister of Walter Steinbrook, whose body is thought to have been found to Blind Indian creek.

New Whipple Bus

The Prescott-Whipple stage line, of which John Sills is proprietor, yesterday received a new Reo bus. The body of the new car is a specially built affair, and will accommodate 15 passengers. The bus will be put into service on the company's route after 3 o'clock this afternoon. With it in use, this stage line plans to give increased service to its Whipple patrons.

From Humboldt

J. Link Smith, of Humboldt, was a visitor to Prescott yesterday, coming in on business.

Ready for Contests

Frank Stephens, from the Sandy, is in Prescott with his roping stock, ready for the contests.

Jerome Visitor

Ed Kurmeier, resident of Jerome, yesterday was a visitor to Prescott, coming in on a short business trip.

Here for July

Mr. and Mrs. Ben C. Smith and family have arrived in this city from their home in Phoenix, planning to remain in Prescott during July.

Goes to Tennessee

Dr. R. N. Looney has left Prescott for Chattanooga, Tenn., called there by the serious illness of his mother.

Mining Man Here

A. L. Ferris, superintendent of the Shannon Copper company, whose property is located in Yaeger canyon, is in Prescott on business, planning to pass several days in this city.

From Venezia

Lee Stayner, mining man of Venezia, is a visitor to Prescott on business, passing several days in this city.

Phones Reservations

Mrs. Todd, of Clarkdale, yesterday telephoned for reservations during the Frontier days. Mrs. Todd is the wife of Dr. Todd, former practicing physician of California, but now of Kingman.

Visit Son Here

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Oliver, of Glendale, yesterday arrived in Prescott, and will remain here during the summer months, visiting their son, Dr. Lawrence H. Oliver.

Yavapai Club Dance

An informal dance will be given at the Yavapai club Saturday evening, July 2, and each Saturday evening during the month of July, it is announced.

Mayer Visitor

J. Perry Walters, of Mayer, is a visitor to Prescott, planning to remain in this city for a few days. He is the son of R. C. Walters, cashier of the Mayer State bank.

For Frontier Days

J. J. McNeil, mining man of this county, is in Prescott, planning to remain here during the Frontier days. He is visiting his sister, Mrs. James H. McKee.

Visit on Coast

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Herndon yesterday left Prescott for southern California, where they plan to remain for a month on a vacation outing.

Seek Ex-Service Man

William E. Martin, ex-service man formerly a patient at Whipple Barracks, is being sought by the Ernest A. Love post of the American Legion. Martin's discharge from the army was lost, presumably in the offices of the twelfth civil service district at San Francisco. It has been located and recovered, and is now in the hands of W. M. Roberts, commander of the legion post. Martin, however, has apparently left Whipple. Anyone knowing his whereabouts is requested to communicate with Roberts at 217 East Carleton street.

From Friday's Daily

From Mayer
B. J. Stewart, well known cattleman of Mayer, is a visitor to Prescott during the Frontier days contests.

Hat in the Ring

Buster Brown, from Walnut Creek, arrived last night, ready to throw his hat in the ring for the big contests.

Phoenix Visitor

Charles W. Crawford, of Phoenix, has arrived in Prescott, and will remain in this city during the Frontier day events.

Phoenix Visitor

Miss Madge I. Phipps, of Phoenix, has arrived in Prescott and will remain here to see the contests at the Frontier days show.

Cattleman Here

Charles Pettis, cattleman of Snowflake, yesterday arrived in Prescott. He will take in the contests at the Frontier day grounds.

Here for Summer

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Gowdy, residents of Phoenix, have arrived in Prescott, planning to remain here during the summer months.

For Frontier Days

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Hopkins, of Oakland, Calif., arrived in Prescott yesterday, planning to remain in this city during the Frontier days.

Leaves for North

Mrs. T. Ronguillo, resident of Phoenix, is in Prescott, planning to remain here for several days. She is staying at the Prescott hotel.

Snowflake Visitor

A. K. Miller, of Snowflake, where he is engaged in cattle raising, is a visitor to Prescott. He will remain for the Frontier days celebration.

Returns from Flagstaff

Gary Wyne, of Yvne Bros. Electric Co., yesterday returned to Prescott, from Flagstaff, where he has been for the past few days on business.

Will Ride Here

Harry Henderson, cattleman of the Mayer country, arrived in Prescott yesterday, and will remain here, taking part in the Frontier day contests.

Enters Contests

Walter Cline has arrived in Prescott, and has signed up to enter the calf-tying and relay pony-express events at the Frontier day contests.

From Camp Verde

Alton Gardner, of Camp Verde, arrived in Prescott yesterday, and is entering the calf-roping and bull-tying events at the Frontier day contests.

Returns from Flagstaff

W. S. Norviel, state water commissioner, yesterday returned to Prescott from Flagstaff, where he has been for the last several days on business. He will be here with Mrs. Norviel, who is passing the summer months in Prescott, during the Frontier days celebration.

From Flagstaff

Harold Pickering, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Pickering, has returned to Prescott from Los Angeles, where he has been studying the piano at ham, ranger at that station. Mrs. Oldham's home is in Bakersfield, Calif.

Return from Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Shull returned to Prescott late Tuesday night from a trip of a week or ten days to Stoneman's lake and the head of Clear Creek, where they enjoyed a pleasant vacation outing. Jack claims to have hauled in 54 trout from Clear Creek, and gives the time as one hour. He also says he brought back with him three baby wild-cats, which he plans to exhibit at the store.

Forester Expected

John D. Jones, assistant district forester with headquarters in the office of the district forester of the southwestern district of the national forests, is expected to arrive in Prescott on July 6, it was learned at the local forest service office yesterday. Jones, who is in charge of the office of lands, will remain on the Prescott forest for about a month.

Farms to Come

T. L. Pigg, of the Williamson Valley Farms company, force at work on the damsite and earth-fill in Williamson valley, yesterday was in Prescott on business. Pigg says he will be here for the Prescott Frontier days, and that the entire force at work in the valley will be here to take in the big contests.

Returns to Ash Fork

Winchester Dickerson, chairman of the county highway commission, yesterday returned to his home in Ash Fork, after a day or two spent in Prescott on official business. During his stay here, the contract with the Prescott Construction Engineering company for the construction of the Cottonwood-Sedona road was signed.

Seek Ex-Service Man

William E. Martin, ex-service man formerly a patient at Whipple Barracks, is being sought by the Ernest A. Love post of the American Legion. Martin's discharge from the army was lost, presumably in the offices of the twelfth civil service district at San Francisco. It has been located and recovered, and is now in the hands of W. M. Roberts, commander of the legion post. Martin, however, has apparently left Whipple. Anyone knowing his whereabouts is requested to communicate with Roberts at 217 East Carleton street.

From Friday's Daily

From Mayer
B. J. Stewart, well known cattleman of Mayer, is a visitor to Prescott during the Frontier days contests.

Hat in the Ring

Buster Brown, from Walnut Creek, arrived last night, ready to throw his hat in the ring for the big contests.

Phoenix Visitor

Charles W. Crawford, of Phoenix, has arrived in Prescott, and will remain in this city during the Frontier day events.

Phoenix Visitor

Miss Madge I. Phipps, of Phoenix, has arrived in Prescott and will remain here to see the contests at the Frontier days show.

Cattleman Here

Charles Pettis, cattleman of Snowflake, yesterday arrived in Prescott. He will take in the contests at the Frontier day grounds.

Here for Summer

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Gowdy, residents of Phoenix, have arrived in Prescott, planning to remain here during the summer months.

For Frontier Days

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Hopkins, of Oakland, Calif., arrived in Prescott yesterday, planning to remain in this city during the Frontier days.

Leaves for North

Mrs. T. Ronguillo, resident of Phoenix, is in Prescott, planning to remain here for several days. She is staying at the Prescott hotel.

Snowflake Visitor

A. K. Miller, of Snowflake, where he is engaged in cattle raising, is a visitor to Prescott. He will remain for the Frontier days celebration.

Returns from Flagstaff

Gary Wyne, of Yvne Bros. Electric Co., yesterday returned to Prescott, from Flagstaff, where he has been for the past few days on business.

Will Ride Here

Harry Henderson, cattleman of the Mayer country, arrived in Prescott yesterday, and will remain here, taking part in the Frontier day contests.

Enters Contests

Walter Cline has arrived in Prescott, and has signed up to enter the calf-tying and relay pony-express events at the Frontier day contests.

From Camp Verde

Alton Gardner, of Camp Verde, arrived in Prescott yesterday, and is entering the calf-roping and bull-tying events at the Frontier day contests.

Returns from Flagstaff

W. S. Norviel, state water commissioner, yesterday returned to Prescott from Flagstaff, where he has been for the last several days on business. He will be here with Mrs. Norviel, who is passing the summer months in Prescott, during the Frontier days celebration.

From Flagstaff

Harold Pickering, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Pickering, has returned to Prescott from Los Angeles, where he has been studying the piano at one of the large musical conservatories of the coast city. He will be in charge of the new Pickering orchestra which will provide music for the dances to be conducted at his father's new dancing pavilion.

Noted Rider Here

Clinton Beck, noted rider, has arrived in Prescott for the Prescott Frontier days, and is entering the broncho-busting and wild-horse race events.

Childs Visitors

A party including J. B. Gunn and child, Mrs. F. R. West, and Mrs. B. F. Childs, all of Childs, yesterday arrived in Prescott to be present at the Frontier days celebrations.

To Seligman

A. W. (Art) Davis, president of the Williamson Valley Farms company, yesterday left Prescott for Seligman and nearby points, where he will remain for a day or two on business for the company. He will return to Prescott in time to be present at the Frontier day contests here.

Tom Mix Contestant

Henry Morris, contestant with the Mix company in 1920, arrived last night from Phoenix and will enter the contests bent on annexing some of the high prizes.

Return to Venezia

J. B. Tomlinson, accompanied by his son, E. L. Tomlinson, yesterday returned to their home in Venezia, after a short visit in Prescott on business. They plan to be back in Prescott during the Frontier days.

From Puntney

James Merritt, of Puntney, where he is connected with the Puntney Lime company, arrived in Prescott yesterday, and will be here for several days, taking in the big doings at the Frontier day arena.

Here from Springs

Ed Mahurn, resident of Cottonwood, yesterday came to Prescott from the Verde Hot Springs, where he has been sojourning for the past several weeks. He plans to remain here for the Frontier day events.

Expected Today

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Vyne are expected to return to Prescott today from Mormon lake, where they have been enjoying a vacation outing and fishing trip of a month. They are accompanied by their three children.

Here on Tour

Miss Ethelyn Wallis, of Los Angeles, accompanied by her brother, J. E. Wallis, is in Prescott for a few days. Mr. and Miss Wallis arrived here yesterday from Jerome, en route to their home in Los Angeles. They will make the trip by automobile.

From Skull Valley

Mr. and Mrs. J. Van Dickson and family, and Everett Schumacher yesterday came to Prescott from their home at the Van Dickson ranch, in Skull valley. They will occupy their town house during the Frontier days contests. Mr. Dickson will enter the roping events.

Visits Son Here

Mr. George Dize, of Little Falls, N. Y., yesterday arrived in Prescott, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Frances M. Dize. Mr. and Miss Dize will visit here for some time with their son and brother, Harry Dize, en route to Prescott, they visited points in California, including San Francisco, Los Angeles and San Diego.

From Calgary, Canada

Prairie Rose, a well known western cowgirl, is reported to be on her way from Calgary, Canada, to this city, with the intention of entering several of the contests.

May Locate

Planning to open headquarters here, J. C. Delts, an architect of Phoenix, has arrived in this city. He was formerly building inspector of the Capital city.

To Iron Springs

Mrs. Thomas Nolan and Mr. and Mrs. Otto Hill and children went overland to Iron Springs yesterday for a day's visit with Phoenix friends.